2018 GDP per capita
MOP 666,000
(2nd highest in the world 🏆)

Once a territory administered by Portugal and now a Special Administrative Region of China, Macao's architecture, art, religion, traditions, food and community reflect the integration of Chinese, Western and Portuguese cultures. The Historic Centre of Macao was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List due to its unique historical and cultural landscape. Thanks to its rich history, cultural diversity and booming gaming industry, Macao has gradually developed into a metropolitan city and currently positioning itself as the World Centre of Tourism and Leisure as it develops into a quality international tourist destination.

Prospects

Macao is one of the core cities of the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area (GBA), which links two special administrative regions (Macao S.A.R. and Hong Kong S.A.R) with nine cities in Guangdong Province of China. The longest bridge-tunnel system sea-crossing in the world namely the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macao Bridge was built to facilitate traveling between cities. Among the world's major bay areas, GBA already surpassed the most famous San Francisco Bay Area in terms of area, population and GDP, and continuously plays an important role in the construction of the "Belt and Road". By taking the advantage of historical background and culture of Macao, it serves as a platform for business cooperation and service between China and Portuguese-speaking countries, and foster the development of the cooperation base with "Chinese culture as the mainstream while multiculturalism coexist". In addition, Macao focuses on building a tourism education and training base in GBA, and moving towards a world tourism and leisure center.

City Life

Cuisine & Dining*

The stunning variety of distinctive cuisines available in Macao - Portuguese, Chinese, Japanese, Indian and so much more - makes this international city a veritable paradise for foodies. With an increasing number of restaurants to choose from, there is something to please every palate at all kinds of budget.
