

June 2024

Dear Subscribers,

We hope this summer semester has been full of exciting coursework as well as sunshine!

As always, we are happy to share announcements, events, workshops, resources as well as additional information intended to support you throughout your studies.

As our tip of the month, we are happy to feature the upcoming International Week XXL, which, in celebration of the International Office's 75th anniversary, will take place throughout the entire month of June!

On our website, please find the current as well as past issues of the newsletter in English and German.

We are wishing you all the best as the semester continues!

All the best,
International Student Support Team
