

Company Profile

Volkswagen Group is one of the earliest and most successful international automakers in China's automobile industry. The Group has grown together with China's auto industry, overcoming many challenges and achieving significant growths, during the 30 years' partnership with China.

The business scope of Volkswagen Group in China includes the production, sales and services of complete vehicles and parts, such as engines and transmissions. All of the Group auto brands — including Volkswagen, Audi, ŠKODA, SEAT, Bentley, Bugatti, Lamborghini, Porsche, Ducati, Volkswagen Commercial Vehicles, Scania and MAN — have a business presence in China.

With the "TOGETHER –Strategy 2025", Volkswagen aims to be the excellent employer in China in the automotive industry by 2025. To build the best vehicles, we need the best team in the sector, highly qualified, fit and, above all, motivated.

Follow us on

don't miss any position:

top
EMPLOYER

中国杰出雇主
CHINA
2019

CERTIFIED EXCELLENCE IN EMPLOYEE CONDITIONS

Product Management Intern

Start of internship: August 2019

Location: Beijing

Duration: 6 months

Are you highly motivated with potential to develop yourself? Do you want to have a look under the pot-lid of automotive company? Then we are looking for you!

Your Responsibilities:

- Support Productline Mid-/Fullsize in Product Management
- Participation in relevant product decision meetings as well as preparation of the therefore needed documents
- Planning, preparing and supporting in different kinds of workshops
- Organize and support team meetings and team events
- Supervision of individual projects and tasks assigned by supervisor and colleagues

Our Requirements:

- Fluent in English, German preferred
- Proficient in Microsoft Office Software
- Proactive, independent and self-motivated working style; willing to learn and work under pressure
- Strong communication, problem-solving and organizational skills
- Highly interested in the automotive industry
- Availability: minimum 3 days/week

Note: Due to country-specific regulations, candidates either have to have the Chinese citizenship or be enrolled in a university in China. Please only send your application if you fulfil this requirement.

What we offer:

- Experience strong brands, excellent products and image
- Good management, team work, open communication
- Personal development and feedback by team and supervisor on regular basis
- International working environment & global network
- Flexible working hours (in accordance with the internship supervisor)
- Remuneration 150 RMB/day for Bachelor and 180 RMB/day for Master students gross
- Housing support into RMB 4.000 for Chinese students studying abroad
- Possible further cooperation on the final thesis (in accordance with the supervisor)

Join us and become a part of the Volkswagen Family.

We are looking forward to welcome you on board!

Moved by innovation,
driven by people.

Please send your CV in English to Lara.Dintner@volkswagen.com.cn and LaurentMarcus.Bachmann@volkswagen.com.cn